

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Business of the Week as Reported by

BUREAUS.

Favorable business features this week include the continued decline of water in flooded districts of the Mississippi river valley, in a portion of which planting has begun; better demand for staples at Baltimore, St. Louis, Omaha, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Sioux Falls; larger sales of iron ore to western furnace, and a revival of activity among country merchants in some central western states.

Unfavorable trade features include the further decline of prices for Western pig iron and steel billets, with prediction of pig iron increase of consumption, and the present favorable for blowing out a number of stakes. Cool weather has checked the retail demand, and complaints are received from wholesale dealers in shoes, clothing and dry goods. Low temperature has retarded the growth of cotton and corn in Texas, and in Kentucky the leaf tobacco crop will be short. The lake traffic outlook is not satisfactory; the movement of building materials is slow; mercantile collections show no improvement, and spring trade in general continues disappointing.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Boston Transcript: Dodo—"Now, tell me what do people think of me?" Pangaea—"And make young men envy for life?" Not Much."

Indianapolis Journal: "How do you stand on the financial question?" "I think I shall stand pat. At least, when I went to the bank, I was told I could not draw."

Elo— "Has your aunt's will been submitted to probate yet?" "No. There is so much trouble about the pecky thing that I almost wish aunt had never died."

Judge: Mrs. Pawnstein—"What are you going to give Uncle Moses on his birthday?" Mr. Pawnstein—"I will let him look at the diamonds in the show-case with an opera glass."

Indianapolis Journal: Napoleon Paraphrased.—The commanding general of the first battle of the next war struck a Napoleonic attitude. "Meu!" rang out his clarion voice, "this day and hour forty kinsteasers are looking down upon us!"

Yankees Statesmen: "Did I under stand you to say that you didn't have any company in the kitchen while I was out, Katie?" "Yes, mumm; that's what I said." "But I smell the tobacco from a pipe all through the house." "Ain't mine, the policeman was in for half an hour, mumb; but we were in the parlor."

Cincinnati Enquirer: Perry Petrie—"No, sir, I don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. Where would I be if that case?" Wayward Watson—"What you get's at anyhow?"

"Ain't I wearin' a sweater?"

Cheango Resied: "Your daughter Imogene is a perfect Venus, Mr. Dodge ins."

"Yes—Venus de Milo; she never does any work with horams."

Brooklyn Life: "Did your wife run into anything when she first got her wheel?" Bloomer—"Yes; she ran into debt."

Brooklyn Life: "May—'Oh, I hate the magazine serials!' Edith—'Why? May—'You can never tell how a story ends until it is finished.'

Brooklyn Life: Nothing Deplorable—High—"What's the matter with you this morning?" You look as though you were on your last legs." Lowe—"Oh, I'm not my self at all." High—"Well, that's nothing to feel so bad about."

Indianapolis Journal: "Timmins' latest job turned out pretty seriously. How?"

"He couldn't sell it."

Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph: "I disappoove of missing baseball language," remarked the Horse Editor in the Snake Editor.

"Who missed it?"

"You said that the men who have just received appointments to foreign consulates have made home runs."

"Well they succeeded in getting what they wanted didn't they?"

"That may be true, but it is the men whom they succeed who are running home."

Truth: "I suppose you may say the honeymoon is at an end when this husband begins to stay out late at night?" "Not exactly. It doesn't really end until the wife can go to sleep again without believing what he has to say for himself."

Up-to-Date: Hiram Oathin—These people in the big cities is gittin' so offixed enterprises that they're bound to have clear skies above 'em ev'ry day.

Ike Stubbs—How d'y'e make that out, III?

Hiram Oathin—Look at the fortunes they're payin' out for them sky-scrappers.

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the household favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. John Boyd & Son.
